

Owasso's Melanie Hasty-Grant, left, was one of three women from Oklahoma who were invited to attend the Barron's Winners Circle Conference recently in Palm Beach, Fla.

Photo provided

Local business woman attends Barron's conference in Florida

Melanie Hasty-Grant, owner of Waterstone Private Wealth Management, was recently honored to attend the (by invitation - only) Barron's Winners Circle Conference for the top women financial advisors in the country. Ms. Hasty-Grant was one of 386 women throughout the United States, and one of only 3 women advisors in Oklahoma honored at the conference in Palm Beach, Florida.

"I am so incredibly honored and humbled to be included among this successful group of women. I feel very grateful to have such a wonderful group of people as clients. It is very gratifying to be able to make a difference in someone's life", says Hasty-Grant.

Ms. Hasty-Grant and her team specialize in overall strategic planning, including financial planning, asset allocation, manager selection and liason, estate planning and tax strategies.

Her clients' consists of foundations, company 401k plans, individuals, business owners and retirees across the United States.